INVESTMENT STRATEGY

NOVA is a fully automated and self organizing predictive system which represents a paradigm shift in automated trading.

No conventional technologies, algorithms, indicators or strategies are employed. Key to the success of NOVA is the proprietary market metric system which has proven accurate in predicting market swing points using innovative mathematical concepts.

Various financial instruments are analyzed with NOVA and profitable trading strategies are identified and understood via proprietary algorithms.

Resultant strategies undergo comprehensive analysis after the application of various business rules to control risk.
